

Porsche China is looking for a Strategy & Business Development Intern

What to expect

- Contribute to the continuous development of Porsche China's Strategy 2025
- Identification of potential opportunity spaces for Porsche China based on China specific market trend research
- Operational support in the central Porsche China Project Management Office
- Internal coordination and information management in CEO and Board Member related matters
- Project support in several running projects related to E-Performance

Interested?

Then send your application to:
Ms. Junheng Liu
E-Mail: junheng.liu@porsche.cn

Requirements

- Pursuing a Bachelor or Master degree in Business Management, Industrial Engineering and other related majors
- Excellent communication skills, proactive attitude, detail oriented and stress resistant
- Familiar with MS Office (especially PowerPoint)
- Fluent in English (German or Mandarin is a plus)
- Committed and available to work full-time for 4-6 months, starting from 11/2018

PORSCHE